Program-Level Results

The results from the 2025 Parent Satisfaction Survey provide unique insights into how families feel about and perceive their child care program. We are committed to using the feedback to better serve the families enrolled in our program as a part of a continuous improvement cycle. An executive summary of consolidated data (across all RisingOaks Early Learning locations) is available at: <https://risingoaks.ca/parent-survey>

This includes a broader look at the four foundations, communication, program statement goals and feedback on our diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging initiatives. Below are summaries of the program-specific results for our centre, including strengths, opportunities for improvement, and next steps that we will take in 2025-26.

Strengths of our program

In reviewing our scores and comments, the following areas of strength have been identified:

- Strong, caring relationships between educators and children
- Creative, high-quality programming and activities
- Positive, open communication with families and a welcoming atmosphere

Opportunities to enhance our program

In reviewing our scores and comments, the following have been identified as areas for enhancement:

- Create more opportunities for private parent-educator communication
- Improve orientation and information sharing for new families
- Offer more opportunities for parent-to-parent connection and community building

Program learnings and next steps

- Educators will recognize the need for a quiet space and seek opportunities to address sensitive matters privately.
- As a team, we will introduce portfolios during centre tours and offer families the opportunity to take them home.
- We will ensure families are informed of organizational events by providing verbal reminders at drop-off and pick-up, sending community posts via Digibot and displaying flyers throughout the centre.

Program comments

We would like to thank all the families who took the time to complete our 2025 Parent Satisfaction Survey sent out to families May 5, 2025. You have provided us with valuable information that will help us to implement positive changes to our programs.

We also thank you for recognizing what we are doing well and sharing in our successes.

The survey has been shared with educators as we will all work together to enhance our programs moving forward. Children and families remain our priority as we aim to meet the needs of all families enrolled at RisingOaks Early Learning | Oak Creek.

We appreciate all your feedback!
